

“He Who Sent Me Is Trustworthy” *John 8:21-30

Even though our Lord in His humanity said: “Father, let this cup pass from Me” He remained on course dedicated to His purpose to the very end.

Without biblical truth, a believer falls apart worse than an unbeliever.

Sometimes in history, God releases His restraint on man’s negative reactionary attitude and rebellion toward Him and allows for some to continue in their hard-heartedness for the furtherance of His plan.

God allowed the hardness of Pharaoh’s heart to go on and He used it to evangelize many during that time.
