

“Freedom Prescription” *John 8:30-32

Faith is thinking but it’s non-meritorious thinking.

All believers are not disciples and all disciples are not believers although all true disciples must be believers.

We will remain hopeless and helpless experientially in life if we don’t continue in biblical truth daily.

We will remain hopeless and helpless experientially in life if we don’t continue in biblical truth daily.

Decision and self-discipline equals concentration.

For the believer in Jesus Christ, it’s concentration or vegetation.

“Truth” is categories of divine revelation to match the empty shelves of our human spirits.

It is biblical truth that frees us to serve the Living God.

Knowledge of biblical truth is the greatest virtue in the Christian way of life and it’s absolutely necessary for our function in the plan of God through the grace of God.

Discipleship is always connected with, therefore never divorced from learning biblical truth.

A disciple is a believer in Jesus Christ who persists, abides in or continues to learn the Word of God.
