

John # 154 “Blinded By The Light” John 9:17-28

The Pharisees have three plans of attack:

1. Make the blind man repeat his story.

2. Summon the blind man’s parents.

3. Discredit the Lord Jesus as a person.

Some of the nicest, fairest, most intelligent people we will ever meet are unbelievers.

The healed man, although unsaved at the moment, demonstrates the extremely rare quality of stabilized emotions under pressure.

Character, like faith is not inherited.

Unstable people shift responsibility.

Religion even destroys the natural affection of a home.

The pressure of religious legalism proves greater than their love for their son.

The healed man refuses to discuss another person’s character and get involved in speculation

The Pharisees are bullies and they have no answers because their theology is bogus.
