

John # 166
“A House Divided”

John 10:20-22; John8:30-33; Galatians 6:7

According to the Lord Jesus, the Pharisees are strangers, thieves and robbers, a group of hired-hands masquerading as God’s under-shepherds but they are just religious legalistic false teachers.

Religion is Satan’s answer to positive spiritual growth; it’s his counterfeit for the greater-grace life of blessings on earth and rewards in Heaven.

Religion is a divisive strategy of Satan to separate the herd for easier consumption of God’s sheep.

Christianity is a relationship with God through regeneration and religion is a relationship with Satan through rebellion.

Every one of us must take responsibility for our own decisions and our own actions in life; we must understand that we can never blame others for our misery, our unhappiness or our suffering.

We are to take full responsibility ourselves based on our own wrong decisions related to our associations, our activities, our motives and our actions in life.

There is intense suffering from violating the sacredness of life, property and privacy which belong to others as provided by God.

All psychotic issues in the ancient world were considered to be the result of demon possession.

The worst people in the world are the religious.
